

SCAN ME

GRADUATE RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM

A FULL-DAY EVENT RECOGNIZING THE CONTRIBUTIONS OF GRADUATE STUDENTS AND FACULTY

*Coffee & Breakfast at 8:30

9:00AM
TO 4:00PM

CIBC HALL

McMaster University
1280 Main St W
Hamilton ON

Graduate students, faculty, and staff are invited to celebrate the exciting developments and achievements in graduate studies, featuring:

- Student research presentations
- Poster session
- Free catered lunch for all registered attendees
- Awards and recognition ceremony

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Dr. Ingrid Waldron

Dr. Ingrid Waldron is Professor and HOPE Chair in the Global Peace and Social Justice Program in the Faculty of Humanities at McMaster University. Her research interests include environmental and climate justice, the structural determinants of health, and disparities related to mental illness, dementia and COVID-19 in Black, Indigenous and racialized communities.

